

Noncredit, Transitions, and the Palomar Promise

by

Suzanne Sebring

Director, Occupational and Noncredit Programs

Noncredit

What do Older Adults Want to Learn?

Re-Careering or Re-Purposing Skills/Experience

- Pursuing new interests, rediscovering prior interests, or re-tooling skill set

Technology

- Keep up with the world – Using a Smart Phone; Applying and/or Interviewing Online

Work-based and Microenterprise

- Older Adults are the fastest growing population of entrepreneurs

Brain Health

- Older Adults want to keep their brain healthy and stimulated

Courses in Development

Re-Careering or Re-Purposing Skills/Experience, Technology & Microenterprise

- Business Canvas
- Facebook for Fun and Profit
- How to Start a Business
- Introduction to Drone Safety and Applications
- Alternative Photographic Processes
- Getting to Know Lightroom
- Getting to Know your Digital Camera

Brain and Body Health

- Brain Fitness
- Adult Active Fitness
- Beginning Tai-Chi-Kung
- Hatha Yoga
- Matter of Balance: Managing Concerns about Falls

Programs in Development

Project Management Certificate of Competency (students learn both methodology and best practices with the ultimate goal to prepare for industry certification as recognized by The Project Management Institute (PMI)).

- Project Management Integration & Scope Management
- Microsoft Project Management
- Procurement Management; Quality, Cost and Risk
- Leadership & Conflict Resolution
- Capstone; Bringing it all together

Medical Professions Preparation Certificate of Competency (three modules designed to help prepare entry level students who are interested in a career within the medical professions).

- Medical Professions Preparatory Module 1
- Medical Professions Preparatory Module 2
- Medical Professions Preparatory Module 3

Transitions

Transitions Program

Learning Community Cohort for Formerly Incarcerated Population: June 11th – August 2nd

Participants will need to be available for full program

- ☐ Monday-Thursday from 9 am-1 pm, and Fridays (field trips – times TBD)
 - COUN 110 (College Success) – Mon & Wed from 9:00 am-12:20 pm
 - SOC 170 (Introduction to Justice Studies) – Tues & Thurs from 9:00 am-12:20 pm
 - Group Discussion/Peer Counseling – Mon-Thurs from 12:20-1:00 pm
 - Field Trips – Fridays (to be determined) - Potential destinations include:
 - Museum of Tolerance
 - Homeboy Industries
 - Rope Course
 - 4-year college tours

In addition, worked into the curriculum will be presentations from departments of possible programs/pathways for continued education in the fall, as well as orientation/referrals to available community resources. We are forming a Transitions Collective Club in spring so it is in place prior to the first Transition cohort. A dedicated website is currently under construction.

Palomar Promise

Palomar Promise

Why should I join the Palomar Promise?

- One-year of free course enrollment and related registration fees at Palomar College using a combination of possible state, federal and local funding resources
- Up to $700 in text book assistance during the first year of enrollment
- Specialized academic and career planning with related support services provided through the First Year Experience (FYE) program
- Priority enrollment during first year at Palomar College
- Guaranteed Admission to CSU San Marcos if students meet transfer eligibility requirements

Who can apply for the Palomar Promise?

- All 2018 graduating high school students who attend an eligible high school within the Palomar College service area
- Students who meet the eligibility criteria for an AB540 Waiver and are eligible to file a California Dream Act application are also eligible to apply for the Palomar Promise Program

To Learn More

Noncredit Programs

<https://www2.palomar.edu/pages/occnocr/noncredit/>

Transitions Program

<https://www2.palomar.edu/pages/transitionsprogram/> - (under development)

Palomar Promise

<https://www2.palomar.edu/pages/palomarpromise/>

Suzanne Sebring

ssebring@palomar.edu 760-744-1150 x 3758