Safe Families for Children

Offers a short term safe housing for children whose families are in crisis. Crisis could be homelessness, financial insecurity, unemployment, hospitalization, domestic crisis, addiction, etc. Families in need reach out voluntarily to request the help of a temporary host family by calling the 24 hour hotline and staff meet them in a convenient public place to complete paperwork. Then a matching process begins to find a host family who can open their home and provide a safe place for the child(ren) for the length of time needed. Host Families are screened approved volunteers who are not monetarily compensated, but are supported by teams with volunteer leaders, trained volunteer coaches, family friends, and resource support to meet practical needs. Length of time children are hosted is case-by-case and dependent upon parents need, parents desire for help, host family availability, and matching the families together in a relationship that is supportive and sustainable.

Home Energy Bill Assistance Program, San Diego Office

HEAP assists clients who need help in paying their electric or gas bills. Clients provide information that will be used to determine an established benefit amount that will appear as a credit on the clients' bills. If the bill is included in the clients' rent, the client receives a check in the benefit amount. The Home Energy Assistance Program may pay for a portion of the energy bill in the form of a dual or single party warrant or a direct payment to a utility company. The client must continue to pay their energy bills since HEAP only covers current energy bills—assistance with propane bills when funds are available on a limited basis. Call for details on availability. Please Note: Cannot receive HEAP assistance if enrolled under the Arrearage Management Payment (AMP) Plan program. Can assist other utility companies besides SDG&E, as long as the company is based in San Diego. CUI will be closed for the holidays on Monday, 12/25, 12/26, and 1/1.
